

Rally for All Walmart Workers

When: 10:30AM, Thursday, August 9

Where: Corner of West Cesar Chavez and Grand Ave. in Downtown LA (Site of proposed Chinatown Walmart)

Walmart is the largest company in the world and millions of people work in its supply chain to keep Walmart's profits high.

Walmart associates, warehouse workers who move Walmart goods, guest workers and representatives of overseas Walmart suppliers will speak out about dangerous, exploitative jobs and they need your support.

Walmart wants to open more stores in LA, but expansion of low wage jobs, retaliation, injury and dangerous working conditions is not what our communities need.
